

Dear Pat & Colleagues
A Sincere Thank You From Páircín Reynolds Firstly I will explain the card as when I purchased it, afterwards I thought you may not understand, but ... a "woolly Sumper" in Ireland is a "Cosy Sweater" in America... so the card is a play on words 😊

Now to the most important business of Expressing my Sincere Thank's and admiration to you and to the wonderful Professional's who were so kind with their time, knowledge and hospitality to such a large diverse Group of International visitors.
I can only say I am in awe of each person I met, their stories their devotion to making society better for everyone, while showing humility, kindness and selflessness Every day was a highlight!

So I will try to sum up my wonderful experience, and I will start by saying I wish the card I had was bigger to allow for all the adventures, and I am sorry I will not get to mention all the fabulous people we met... The Sonoma Desert Museum was wonderful being from Ireland where we have bogs and rain, this truly was special and to see the humming birds, wow! then Tiny's... what can I say but delicious!
Tucson Police Department was fabulous being a police officer of 24 years this was just brilliant, Joe (Captain) Mark (Captain) and their colleague were awesome. The Meeting then with Laura Conover was great and to learn of her progressive views and plans which resulted in re Election was brilliant and gave me hope Then Lunch at the Casino was superbe
